SMALL BLAZE YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

Yesterday afternoon about 3:30 o'clock the fire department responded to an alarm of fire at the home of Mary Eliza Carr, colored, in East Fifth street. The blaze was caused by a defective fire in the kitchen of the house and the loss was slight. This was the first run made by the company under their new chief.

Squire F. W. Bane was taken suddenly and seriously ill while in County Judge Rice's office about noon yesterday. After receiving medical attention he was taken home and is reported much improved this morning.

Mr. William Banfield returned to his home at Garrison yesterday after a short visit to his niece, Mrs. S. Macy Humphreys, of West Second street.

Mr. George Laycock of Dover was a business visitor in the city yesterday.

GEO. BARKLEY HENDRICKSON LATEST WAR BULLETINS

Victim of Unfortunate Tragedy, Buried Yesterday—Was a Prominent Young Farmer.

The funeral of George Barkley Hendrickson, who was killed here Tuesday by Ben Middleman, was held yesterday at East Fork, Lewis county, under the auspices of the Old Fellows, Knights of Pythias and Red Men, assisted by Rev. Fawcett of the Tulesboro M. E. church, South.

A very large crowd of sympathizers, friends and relatives attended, perhaps the largest ever seen there on any similar occasion.

The entire community is in grief on account of the loss of this estimable young man. He was a young man of good habits, sober, honest and industrious, having rare business ability. He was a live stock dealer and had been operating a broom factory with success for five years.

This young man came from the very best families of the county, being a nephew of the late Judge George T. Holbert of Vanceburg, and a cousin of the present Circuit Judge W. T. Holbert of Vanceburg. His mother was Miss Belle Barkley, daughter of James Barkley of Lewis county. The deceased was a cousin of Harry Barkley, Frank Barkley, W. H. Means and Cornelius Frank Hendrickson of this city. His father, Jack Hendrickson, is one of the county's most active citizens.

Relatives and some friends of the family from this city attended the funeral.

MAYSVILLE TAKES DOUBLE-HEADER.

Last night at the high school auditorium a double-header basketball game was pulled off between the boys and girls of the Maysville high school and the Germantown school. Maysville won both games, the girls by the score of 6 to 5, while the boys simply ran away with their game, the score being 29 to 12.

Mrs. Jane Blanchard of East Second street celebrated her eighty-ninth birthday December 31, and is spry enough to go up and downstairs by herself.

Turks To Leave Constantinople.

London, January 8.—Constantinople, regarded by the allies as one of the greatest prizes of the war should they win, and Turkey be forced to give it up, may be abandoned soon as the seat of the Turkish government. A dispatch from Sofia, Bulgaria, gives in circumstantial detail an account of unsettled conditions at Constantinople, where it is said that internal disorders as well as attacks from without apparently are feared.

Another Ultimatum.

London, January 8.—A dispatch from Rome says that Italy has issued an ultimatum, setting a time limit when Turkey must apologize for the Hildeda incident.

Will Try To Storm Warsaw.

London, January 8.—A dispatch from Copenhagen declares that General Von Hindenburg, the German commander in Poland, is expecting heavy reinforcements and that with an army of 1,000,000 men he purposes to make one more supreme effort to break through to Warsaw, the Polish capital.

Outrages On Clergy.

London, January 8.—At the request of the Belgian legation in London, the British press bureau today issued detailed allegations of the maltreatment of Catholic clergy in Belgium and the destruction of their institutions by German troops.

Death Grapple In Alsace.

Geneva, January 8.—The fighting in lower Alsace is daily growing in intensity around Strimbach, Cerney and Thann. Villages, houses and trenches are taken and retaken at the point of the bayonet and the casualties on both sides have been extremely heavy.

It is stated that about 250,000 in all are engaged and that both sides are using heavy guns. The Germans are continuously hurrying reinforcements from the Rhine forts.

The initial entertainment of the "500" Club was given by Mrs. Lewis Merz Friday afternoon in honor of her guest, Mrs. Milton Brown of Cincinnati. Mrs. Eugene Merz, Miss Grace Anderson and Mrs. LeWright Browning were the fortunate prize winners. About 30 ladies were present. The decorations were pink carnations and the luncheon was both delicious and elaborate.

PROGRESSIVE MAYSVILLE IN THE MOVIES.

Maysville's fire department and schools made their debut into the moving picture world yesterday. The stage was set in front of Washington opera house at 11 o'clock in the morning, and the first picture taken shows Mayor Lee, members of Council and the members of the fire department lined up in front of the fire company's quarters. Then the movie man set his machine across the street and the "Kinney Mac" and "Uncle Bob" were taken in turn as each emerged from the fire hall. The local department was augmented by volunteers in uniform, and the Mayor and Councilmen also took a ride up Second street while the camera, operating at the corner of Second and Market, "caught" the crowd as well as the machine. The City Council in session the fire drill at the high school, two district schools and St. Patrick's parochial school were also taken.

Many other views about town are in this film and it will show Maysville just what it will be called in the theaters where it will be shown, "Progressive Maysville."

CIRCUIT COURT.

Elizabeth Harrington was granted a divorce from Charles Harrington and restored to her maiden name, Greenlee. A. G. Sulzer, Master Commissioner, removed his official bond, with E. A. Robinson, J. C. Everett, S. P. Browning, Clarence Mathews, J. B. Durrett, William Trouts, Jr., E. T. Kirk, J. M. Hunt and Thomas A. Keith as sureties.

In the case of E. H. Bryant against L. T. Anderson, after the evidence was introduced, the attorney for plaintiff moved a dismissal of the action and agreed to pay the costs. The court so ordered.

The case of Louisville Tobacco Warehouse Company against Judge J. M. Lee of Flemingsburg was called and a jury impaneled. The court is still hearing evidence this morning.

Mr. Elmer Huys has returned to Jasper College, Jasper, Ind., after spending the holidays with his mother.

CITY MISSION REPORT FOR MONTH OF DECEMBER.

The work during the month of December was particularly heavy this year, as many of the unemployed of the city were in actual need. There were many more than the usual number of calls for assistance from those unfitted for work by illness.

Night's lodgings were provided for in two instances. Coal sent to several families, groceries, shoes and stockings in many cases were given.

Mrs. Brock reported $23.95 spent in money in the work; 11 baskets sent out at Christmas and later in the month; 378 garments distributed. Some of this clothing was sold to those able to pay a nominal price for good garments, the money thus made going back into the work. Mrs. Brock made 58 calls in the homes. A check for $18 was contributed by the Knights of Pythias, which was much appreciated. The "Win One" class of the M. E. church sent in $2 to be used where needed. The Bible class of the Second M. E. church sent in a box of excellent clothing for distribution. The Traveling Men's Association made a most generous donation of all kinds of substantial groceries. A "Friend," who never forgets the Mission, a large donation of Christmas groceries and fruit. Merz Bros. and Hechinger & Company, good warm clothing. "Friends," $3 in cash.

Mrs. Brock reports the Tuesday night meetings and the Sunday school keep up their interest and excellent attendance.

Miss Maxon is to introduce an index card system, by means of which traces can be kept of each family helped by the Mission. Each time assistance is given the date and character of such assistance is to be put on record.

The Christmas entertainment made glad the hearts of children and parents alike. The audience room at the Mission was packed to its utmost capacity. The little play, "The Spirit of Christmas," introducing Santa Claus, was written in rhyme by Miss Maxon for the occasion. It was clever, indeed, while the intelligent interpretation of those taking part showed the lesson had reached home. Santa Claus distributed the gifts.

Miss Maxon continues to feel encouraged over the attendance at the night school.

The Industrial schools and Story Hour continue to be well attended.

The Mission goes into the work for 1915 feeling most deeply its responsibilities and will try to intelligently discharge that responsibility to the community.

DOC. FULTZ'S AUTO WENT CRAZY.

(Vanceburg Sun.)

Dr. C. H. Fultz's automobile turned over with him on the Salt Lick pike Saturday when something went wrong with the steering gear and the doctor had a very narrow escape. As it was, he was considerably bruised and his machine was damaged to the extent of $200.

The fog this morning was thick enough to slice, otherwise everything is D. K.

The Chesapeake & Ohio railroad, with whom R. D. Wilson has been connected for some time past in obtaining rights of way for a double track and making abstracts of title, is now through in this county and Mr. Wilson is no longer connected with the company. The company has spent many thousands of dollars in purchasing rights of way in this county and city and have been very liberal in their dealing with the citizens who were fortunate enough to own land that they desired to purchase. The work done by the company in Vanceburg on Third street has added more to the beauty of the property than any one thing that has been done here for many years past.

WELLESLEY'S SUCCESS.

Wellesley's $2,000,000 restoration and endowment fund, $1,250,000 of which had been secured before January 1, in order to claim the $750,000 offered by the Rockefeller Foundation, has been raised, says the Boston Herald.

Bishop Lawrence, president of the trustees of the college, announced that the fund is secure "if pledges and promises now outstanding are duly received."

This means that the $40,000 which has been lacking for over a week, and to raise which almshouses all over the country have been working with redoubled efforts, has been pledged.

The fire which destroyed College Hall at Wellesley was discovered before dawn, March 17, in the chemical laboratory on the fourth floor of the left wing. More than 200 girls and 16 members of the faculty were residents of the hall and lost everything they had. The loss was estimated at $1,500,000, but the value of books, equipment, paintings and college records was practically incalculable.

It was estimated that $2,000,000 would be necessary, for the college had so outgrown its original equipment that a larger plant than that of College Hall was needed. The Rockefeller Foundation offered $750,000 if the remainder of the $2,000,000 were raised by January 1, 1915, and with this promise as an additional incentive, Wellesley girls set to work.

MUNICIPAL HOME RULE.

Governor-elect Martin G. Brumbaugh of Pennsylvania, while in Pittsburgh, gave out an interview in which he practically committed himself to the principle of home rule for cities. He described Pittsburgh as a city shackled by state legislation and intimated in the strongest terms a desire to see relief brought to her, and in this intimation those who read between the lines see a declaration for home rule.

Home rule for cities is coming. The spirit is abroad in West Virginia, and even if the coming Legislature shall fail to establish home rule, it will merely be deferred until the next Legislature. In West Virginia there is no disposition to secure any divorce from the legitimate ties which bind a city to the state at large. On the contrary, every advocate of home rule recognizes as a first principle the preservation of the proper relationship between municipality and state, and seeks for the cities healthy privileges in the form of initiative—the right to work out their own salvation along lines of progress through patriotic endeavor, without interference or hindering restrictions. Huntington wants this privilege of broader home rule through a general provision if possible, through a special enabling act, if not obtainable in the general form.—Huntington Herald-Dispatch.

CENTRALIZED HIGH SCHOOLS.

Rapid progress is being made in the development of centralized high schools in Ohio townships. For months in counties where elections have been held to decide between the old time district school and the new modern high school and community center, the people without exception have supported the new plan. Not an election has been lost for months.

Delaware county, thus far is leading in that line. So far the elections in that county under the new school code provisions, will wipe out 40 one-room districts and substitute four new modern schools. The change in that county has been greatest, school officials report, of any county in the state.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

THE GOSPEL OF OUT OF DOORS.

John Muir has done greater service to all the people, and will be missed more by the whole country, than men of science who may stand higher in its records. John Muir in the west and John Burroughs in the east have mingled with the dry science of earth, life and history, the sentiment of out of doors and the poetry of universal life. Their sense of the romance of science has fostered a broader and deeper appreciation of the common sympathy of human and animal, plant and past earth life than the dry study of the biologists and geologists on one side, or the misleading sentimentalism of the animal fakery in literature on the other. They have brought the feeling of out of doors home to students without repelling them with fiction, and to all humanity without leading it away from truth.—Minneapolis Journal.

CAPITAL FOR PRIVATE BANKS.

At the present session of the General Assembly it is thought the Ohio Bankers' Association will ask for a new law to compel every private bank to have a minimum capital stock as protection to the depositors. The present suggestion is a minimum capital of $10,000 in towns of less than 500 and a minimum of $15,000 in all other centers. As there are 195 private banks in the state, the proposed law will compel the investment of not more than $2,925,000. In support of the contention that private banks should have a capital stock, the point is made that many private bankers have long followed the capitalization idea.

Another reason why Congress should be very economical this year is that before very long the Panama-Pacific Exposition deficit will be hanging around Washington, waiting to be paid.—Ohio State Journal.

FOOLISH PHILOSOPHY.

He who gets rich quick is apt to go broke in a hurry.

Many a great man is never heard of 20 miles from home.

Men with a keen sense of humor never try to tell funny stories.

Man is made of dust—which may account for his wanting the earth.

Naturally the reformer isn't a success unless he makes good.

Some men are so constituted that they would do anything for money, except work for it.

Matches are made in heaven; that is, those that are not made in hammocks.

It sometimes happens that even the man who always knows what to do can't find any one to do it for him.

THE DAILY NOVELETTE.

The Genius.

Mordecai Latch, president of the Worldbeater Chewing Gum Trust, looked up from his swivel chair.

An excited young man with long black hair was gazing at him with the wild eyes of genius.

"Mr. Mordecai?" said the president of the Chewing Gum Trust.

"No," said the other. "I am Antonio Spagool. I came in ahead of my turn because I couldn't wait. Sir, I have invented for which you have advertised so long. I have invented a chewing gum of incredibly dainty flavor, yet which in three chews will positively remove all traces of liquor or tobacco from any breath what ever."

"At last!" cried Latch. "But, tell me, will it disguise the onion breath?"

"Positively and instantly! It is the quickest thing it does."

"My boy, come into the firm! And the flavor if it you say it is delicate!"

"Delicate, sir, as the new-blown rose! Sir, the breath of angels! I, Antonio Spagool, after neither eating nor sleeping for 89 days, am here with the new chewing gum, Attar of Garlic!"

Mordecai Latch frowned, but not before he had taken time to kick Antonio Spagool down the elevator shaft.—Louisville Times.

DO IT NOW

Maysville People Should Not Wait Until It Is Too Late.

The appalling death-rate from kidney disease is due largely to the fact that the little kidney troubles are usually neglected until they become serious. The slight symptoms often give place to chronic disorders and the sufferer may slip gradually into some serious form of kidney complaint.

If you suffer from backache, headache, dizzy spells, if the kidney secretions are irregular of passage and unnatural in appearance, do not delay. Help the kidneys at once.

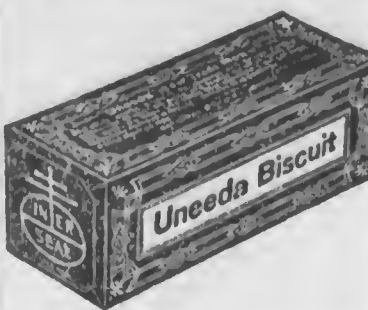

Donan's Kidney Pills are especially for kidney disorders—they act where others fail. Over one hundred thousand people have recommended them. Here's a case at home:

Mrs. S. Neal, 497 W. Second St., Maysville, Ky., says: "One of my family had a great deal of trouble from his back and kidneys. Donan's Kidney Pills made him better and he always praises them."

Mrs. Neal is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Donan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Donan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. Neal recommends—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. NEWS FORECAST FOR THE COMING WEEK.

Washington, January 9.—The Federal Commission on Industrial Relations is to meet in New York on Monday to begin its investigation of the Russell Sage Foundation, the Carnegie benevolences, the Rockefeller charities and other large institutional charities and benevolences centered in the metropolis. According to Frank P. Walsh, chairman of the commission, the basis of the investigation is to be the charge that the creation of foundations represents the beginning of an effort "to perpetuate the position of predatory wealth through the corruption of the sources of public information." It is expected that many of the leading financiers of the nation will be summoned to testify before the commission.

Tuesday is the day fixed by the House of Representatives for taking a vote on the much-discussed woman suffrage amendment to the Federal constitution. The amendment would declare that the right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged on account of sex.

TWO TO DIE FOR MURDER.

Little Rock, Ark., January 9.—A double electrocution is scheduled to take place in the state penitentiary here Monday morning. The prospective victims of the death chair are Joe Strong and Charles Deween, neither of whom has reached his twenty-first birthday. The youthful pair were convicted of the murder of L. A. Thompson, an aged merchant at Benton, Saline county. Robbery furnished the motive for the killing. In the belief that the old merchant carried a large sum of money on his person the two youths entered his store and attacked him with a piece of gas pipe. The old man died of his injuries.

Chairman Ruby Ballou of the State Rating Board, declares that under the new schedules Louisville property owners will be saved $60,000 annually in fire insurance premiums.

TAFT

To Discuss Duties of President in Three Lectures Before Cincinnati Law School in February.

Prof. William Howard Taft will lecture at the Cincinnati Law School Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, February 24, 25 and 26. The lectures will be at 2 o'clock each afternoon in the reading room and auditorium of the school. The first day the former President will lunch at the Business Men's Club with Prof. William Perry Rogers, the dean of the school and president of the club.

In a letter to Dean Rogers, Prof. Taft states that he will most likely discuss "The Executive Power," and "The Presidency, Duties and Responsibilities," in the three lectures.

The former occupant of the White House in telling why he had selected these subjects for discussion, says:

"The subject of the executive power is one that is rather defined by practice than decisions of the courts, and with some personal experience I thought, perhaps, I could make the subject useful and interesting and cover a territory outside of the usual constitutional course."

The Arizona anti-labor law was declared unconstitutional by a special Federal court.

SAYS SECRETARY REYNOLDS

Washington.—An exhaustive review of the November elections, issued here in Republican National Committee headquarters, over the signature of Secretary James B. Reynolds, says in part:

"The result of the elections of November last proves three very important political facts:

"First, the Republicans carried upon national issues states that would give a clear majority in the electoral college and elect a Republican President."

"Second, the Democratic majority in the next House is only the result of the Progressive vote in certain districts of the country, and the Democrats will be really a minority party in the House of Representatives."

"Third, two-thirds of the Progressive vote of 1912 has not only ceased to support third party candidates, but has returned to the support of the Republican principles and candidates."

"This is the story that is told by the official figures of the last election just completed by the Republican National Committee."

This is followed by tables, statistics and an extensive analysis of the vote by states.

WASHINGTON LETTER

What Is Doing In Congress—Gossip From Nation's Capital—European War To End By Next Fall, 'Tis Said.

Washington, January 9.—American ships and American commerce already are being treated differently by England. Before the Secretary of State dispatched the now famous protest to the American Ambassador at the Court of St. James it had been proven beyond doubt that the rights of American citizens were being infringed upon. There is a great bulk of documentary evidence which has been collected by the Department of State. The President was consulted. The cabinet as a whole considered the protest carefully. The note went to England with the expectation of lacking up the requests made therein. There was no idea of asking more than was expected, so that there could be no room for retrenchment.

The autumn of 1915 will see the end of the war in Europe. Peace terms will favor the allies greatly, but at the expense of Turkey and Austria, rather than Germany. No agreement as to armaments will be reached. German territory will not be the scene of extensive fighting. The main German fleet will not be brought into action. There will be a general abandonment of militarism on land and sea, not by treaty agreement, but because of the pressure of popular opinion. The war will pave the way for an international judicial and police system. These forecasts are those of an army officer who has held one of the most important posts the nation can bestow. They were made on condition that his name not be used in connection with their publication. His prediction that the war will end next fall is based on an intimate knowledge of the resources of the belligerents. He says they will not permit of another winter campaign on the scale that the war would be conducted, if conducted at all.

Prospects of an extra session of Congress are growing dimmer. Unusual progress has been made with legislation in the House. The Senate is behind its schedule but is in a position to make up a great deal of time in the next few weeks. The President has shown no inclination to insist further on the carrying out of the program he submitted in his message.

An act to regulate newspapers is a subject that has been discussed informally among the members of Congress lately. There has been some talk of introducing such a bill at this session but owing to the practical certainty that consideration would be impossible, it has been abandoned. The idea, as far as it has taken shape, is to have the laws regulating newspapers handled by a commission along the lines of the Interstate Commerce Commission. The chief aim is to prevent the dissemination of false news.

President Wilson appears to be in the physical trim. He makes it a point to get some time each day in the open air. The coming of cold weather has not kept him within doors during the time set for recreation.

The President is brisk in his movements and thinks and acts quickly. He is called upon many times daily to answer queries of deep and far reaching importance. The quickness and clearness of his answers are distinguished attributes. In addition to the large volume of work that he handled every day he sees numerous callers. The President usually is accessible during office hours to any person with a legitimate reason for seeing him. Callers are admitted to his private office almost daily for no other purpose than shaking hands with the executive.

Mr. Wilson is not at all lavish in his dress. In the summer he wears linen clothing while at work. It is far from the most expensive grade of linen that is used in these suits. This winter the President has been wearing gray most of the time. If he possesses an assortment of suits he neglects wearing most of them. A frequent caller at the White House executive offices expresses the belief that the President has only one business suit, as he has been wearing it at each of his visits for the past three months.

ERIE BISHOP'S SEVENTY-FIFTH BIRTHDAY.

Erie, Pa., January 9.—Rev. John E. Fitzmaurice, bishop of the Catholic diocese of Erie, received many congratulations today on the occasion of his seventy-fifth birthday anniversary. Bishop Fitzmaurice was born in Ireland and was educated in that country and the United States. He became bishop of Erie in 1899.

Louis Spiegel, a New York lawyer, was indicted in Chicago on the charge of conspiracy growing out of the alleged clairvoyant ring.

Russia began Thursday the celebration of Christmas, which lasts three days. Oranges and apples sold on Christmas eve at 25 cents each.

Judge Kennesaw M. Landis sentenced a member of a family with whom he had long been on intimate terms to a prison term.

The immigration bill was sent to conference by the House after the negro exclusion feature of the bill had been defeated.

The Southern railway denied that it has battled up the southern coal fields, including those in Kentucky.

Kentucky will not be officially represented at the Panama Exposition. The commissioners failed to raise enough money and have thrown up the work as a bad job.

Commissioner of Agriculture John W. Newman has announced as a candidate for Governor on a state-wide prohibition platform. That defeats John. Kentucky is not ready for state-wide prohibition.

With an Alexander headed for the penitentiary, a Buckner suing a Jay husband for divorce and alimony, and a Clay bringing suit against a Cincinnati shoe salesman for alleged breach of promise, it looks like some of the F. F. B.'s are about to make a weak finish.

Fred Bassett has brought over this late poem from Mt. Sterling:

"There was an old man who had a wooden leg;
He wouldn't steal and was too proud to beg;
So he put four spoons under an old tin can
And called it a Ford,
And the blamed thing ran."

PARDON LIKELY FOR YOUTH WHO "MADE GOOD."

St. Paul, Minn., January 9.—The case of Albert Dawson Barrett, who has come to be known as Minnesota's youthful "Jean Valjean," will be taken up by the State Board of Pardons when it meets here Monday. Some years ago, while still in his teens, Barrett was sentenced to the reform school at St. Cloud and three years ago he made his escape from the institution. Recently the Minnesota authorities located him in Detroit and took steps to obtain his extradition. Then the fact came to light that in the former youthful offender had mended his ways after his escape from prison and had "made good" in his new home. He was holding a responsible position in Detroit and recently had married.

Men cannot understand women's sufferings. What we women know from experience, we know better than any man. I want to tell you how to cure yourself at home at a cost of about 12 cents a week.

If you suffer from women's peculiar ailments causing pain in the head, back, or bowels, feeling of weight and dragging-down sensation, fainting or displacement of pelvic organs, causing kidney and bladder weakness or constipation and piles, painful or irregular periods, catarrhal conditions and discharges, extreme nervousness, depressed spirits, melancholy, desire to cry, hot flashes, weariness, salivary complexion, with dark circles under the eyes, pain in the left breast, or a general feeling that life is not worth living,

Tell me if you are worried about your daughter. Remember, it costs you nothing to give my home treatment a ten days' trial, and does not interfere with daily work. If health is worth asking for, then accept my generous offer and write for the free treatment, including my Illustrated booklet, "Woman's Own Medical Adviser." I will send all in plain wrappers post-paid. To save time, you can cut out this offer, mark your feelings, and return to me. Send today, as you may not see this offer again. Address:
